Commonwealth of Massachusetts LAND COURT

Beginning at the southeast corner by a stone bound by a private way and by land of Watson, or formerly and running: Westerly by said way 44 feet, 5 inches to a stone post and land of the heirs of Ghee; or formerly; Northerly by land of said heirs, 116 feet to a stone post and land of heirs of Jesse Rogers;

Oakman, dated March 12th, 1876, and duly recorded Book 127, Page 46, purporting to secure a note for $400, payable one year with interest annually, which mortgage appears to be undischarged, unassigned and unforfeited on and by the record—or not properly or legally discharged of record;

That for more than twenty years after the expiration of the time limited for the full performance of said condition no payment has been made and no other act done in recognition of said mortgage; and That the mortgagor named in said mortgage and those claiming under have been in uninterrupted possession of said land for more than twenty years after the expiration of time limited in said mortgage for the full performance of the condition thereof.

WHEREFORE your petitioner prays that after appropriate notices a decree may be entered on the foregoing allegations as authorized by Section 15, Chapter 240 of the General Laws as amended by Chapter 20, of the Acts of 1924.

A Difficult "Situation"

Did you see that "Classified Ad" last week? The one that wanted a farmhand who had to be "an expert agriculturist, sheep herder, tractor driver, bridge player," plus being "an authority on chemistry and mathematics"?

Slim Thomas, who ran that ad more or less as a joke, called and said, "I got 23 answers and almost every one claimed they could meet all those qualifications! That means I want to keep the man I have—'Happy' Peters. "He was thinking of quitting but now I've got to talk him into staying. Handy never pretends to be an expert, he's just a good all-around hired hand." From where I sit, Slim's smart to be wary of people who consider themselves to be all-around "experts." Some folks will "expert" on anything—from the clothes a man should wear to whether he ought to drink beer or buttermilk. Personally I don't want to "classify" myself as knowing all the right answers.
