

Tiana “Tee” Minter is a native Washingtonian who has a passion for documenting and preserving Black & Queer voices. For the past 4 years, Tee has worked as a certified medical assistant here in Washington, D.C. and Richmond, VA. They are a proud Virginia State University Trojan and a member of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. Along with their work with The Washington Blade, Tee sits on the board of the Marjorie L. Woods Foundation which seeks to ensure the proper upkeep and preservation of the historically Black Lincoln Memorial Park Cemetery in Compton, California. Tee is tasked with documenting the history of its founders and the pioneers that are interred there.
